Re: US v. Rodney Person, 09 Cr. 983 (WHP)

Dear Judge Pauley:

I am counsel for Rodney Person, and I respectfully request that the violation of supervised release hearing, currently scheduled for July 22, 2020, be adjourned to a date in September 2020. Mr. Person was arraigned on the specifications by the Hon. Deborah A. Batts, and the matter was adjourned pending the outcome of Mr. Person's Westchester County indictment, # 1079-2019, on which the seven specifications are based.

Fred Bittlingmaier, Mr. Person's attorney in the Westchester County indictment, informs me the case is still pending without a specified adjournment date. There is the possibility of the case being listed for July 27, 2020. Mr. Bittlingmaier also informs me that he has no further update from the Westchester County District Attorney's Office regarding resolution of that indictment.

AUSA Michael Maimin informs me that he has no objection to the adjournment.

Application granted. Conference adjourned to October 2, 2020 at 2:00 p.m.

SO ORDERED:

WILLIAM H. PAULEY III
U.S.D.J.

July 20, 2020

Sincerely,

/s/
